Weather is always unpredictable in the spring. Please bring clothing that will allow you to layer for changes in temperature and weather in the field. Hiking boots or hiking shoes are strongly encouraged for trails and stream beds. Please bring a warm fleece or midlayer to wear underneath a rain or wind jacket. Mornings in the spring can be very cool, especially at high altitudes. Again, items listed below are not required for participation, but please bring clothing for potential cold or wet weather.

Rain Jacket and Pants or Windbreaker
Extra shoes for photographing near streams
Hat
Gloves
Umbrella
Flashlight/Headlamp
